

Accreditation Workshop: Tapping the Collaborative Power of Your Learning Community

---

This practical, innovative workshop supports leaders from public, charter, independent, and parochial schools in exploring collaborative processes that engage the entire school community in the WASC principles of school change, while systematically building from instructional strengths and promoting inquiry-based principles of student and adult learning.

What You Will Learn

During this interactive, hands-on workshop, you will learn collaborative protocols and consensus-building strategies that can be implemented immediately to:

- Ensure timely collection and analysis of multiple sources of data;
- Facilitate shared leadership and partnerships across the learning community; and,
- Focus on high quality student learning and 21st century skills.

Who Should Attend?

All members of your school community would benefit greatly from attending this workshop, including principals and other administrators, WASC coordinators, Focus and Home Group leaders, department chairs, and all others having responsibility for implementing your school's WASC-FOL process.

When is This Workshop Offered?

Sessions are offered in various formats, from single day to multiple day sessions depending upon the needs of your school or district. Sessions can be integrated into Department or Grade Level meetings over a period of time.

Single day workshops, which include visiting experts from the WASC Accrediting Commission for Schools, are open to all schools and districts and periodically scheduled at local venues during the academic year.

Follow-up coaching is available for schools and districts wishing to receive additional support.

Associates in Learning and Leadership

A project of Community Partners

Please direct inquiries to:

Patricia Martinez-Miller, Ph.D.
Project Leader
pmartinezmiller@ALL-online.org

1000 N. Alameda St.
Suite 240
Los Angeles, CA 90012

213.346.3261
info@ALL-online.org
www.ALL-online.org